“ Seems like a life time ago, but growing up the Freed Family, we seemed to do a lot together. Carol was my Aunt. Either at Grandma's in Norwich NY. which I miss a lot, or Rochester NY, Chuck tells me it was Penfield (or something close to that spelling wise). Where Dick and Carol and Uncle Bob use to live. It was always fun to see them!!! I wished I got to see them more lately but it didn't always seem to work out. Carol we miss you! A life well lived. You left a mark on the world, in many ways but your kids are one great example.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Carol's death. She and I were two of the original four members of what we called the M&M's. We took turns each month hosting the group at our homes, where we would bring whatever handwork we were working on, and sit and stitch and enjoy each other's company. (We always seemed to have a dish of M&Ms, so that is where the name came from.) My husband and I moved to SW Florida in 2013, and one of the last things I did there was a goodbye lunch with Carol. I always treasure the memories of our friendship. Carol was a wonderful person, and I am so glad I had the chance to know her.
Prayers are with all of you.

“ TO: Nancy, Lorie, and Darryl, John, and Carol.s grandchildren, family and friends:

Larry and I enjoyed a wonderful friendship with both Dick and Carol, after they moved to Salisbury, N.C., and later at Pawley's Island, S.C.

As a member of Salisbury, NC., First Presbyterian Church Cookbook Committee, Carol served as my partner and Co-Editor of the Church's first Cookbook entitled ~ Blended Blessings ~ Heavenly Carolina Cuisine. The $50,000 we raised from the project, was used to establish the "Blended Blessings Fund", as a sort of endowment , to provide ongoing annual support for the Presbyterian Women's Mission projects.

Carol was such a "blessing" to all those who knew her, and indeed, a true blessing as a partner and collaborative committee member who dedicated herself, her energy, and countless hours over several years to the creation and publication of the Cookbook in 1998.

Carol made many friends, wherever she made her home. I treasured a rare friendship, and she will always hold a special place in my heart as one of the most intelligent, generous, loving, and caring people I have known.

*Sincerely,
Libby and Larry Gish

“ Carol was my older sister. We wanted to spend our elder years traveling, dancing, & having fun. That was not in the script. Rest peacefully, sis. I will spend the rest of my life loving you. Sympathy to John, Lorie, & Darryl. 🌸💕
