“ Lisa was a dorm-mate of mine at St Andrews. Although I was a couple of years older than her and had no classes with her- she was quite frequently around us “older” students. She was an absolute doll. To me, she was the epitome of a southern girl. Always witty and put together so well... and that hair! You could spot her a mile away with that pile of dark hair! I am so glad we reconnected on Facebook. I am so saddened by her passing. I hope you know that St Andrews was a special place for many of us who went there and Lisa is and always will be a part of why it was so special.

“ Hobart and Marilyn,
My arms are around you two. Lisa was a kind spirit....fond memories at the golf club. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.
I love you.
