“ It was in my adulthood that met many of my Frye cousins. I remember the first Frye reunion I attended and so enjoyed meeting Shirley and Jim, as well as Janet and her husband. Shirley and I shared the same first initial of our first name, and the same middle and maiden names. I so enjoyed the times we met at the reunions as she shared memories of the Frye family in North Carolina. Her smile was contagious.

God speed to the side of her loved ones as they walk this path of grief.

“ I went to Rowan Technical Institute with Shirley. I started to school there after I got out of high school. All of the girls that was in our class went to Shirley's house to "study". We always had a great time. She was an example of a great Christian lady. She and Jim always welcomed us into their home as if we were family. I know she's rejoicing in heaven with her Saviour, Jim, Jimmy, and all her other family members that are in Heaven. I'm sorry for your loss but oh, the sights that she is seeing. My prayers are with the family.

“ Mrs. Shirley was like a second mother to me growing up. A very patient women who endured many baseballs, footballs and basketballs pounding off her house, car and her treasured flowers and plants. She never scolded the neighborhood kids but rather her husband, Jim who was out there with us kids. Her side yard which served as the ballfield for the neighborhood kids was beaten down to bare dirt and could never grow grass. Her trees and plants often served as bases and really never had a chance to flourish.

When I think of Mrs. Shirley I can only smile. She always met you with that infectious smile. She lived her faith in everyday life and treated everyone like her best friend. Mrs. Shirley and the entire Trexler family will always be the most treasured people in my life. Jim, Mrs. Shirley and Jimmy are celebrating in heaven. THAT makes me smile!
