

Alfred "Al" Raymond Carter

January 31, 2026

Alfred "Al" Raymond Carter, 82, of Salisbury, North Carolina, passed away on January 31.

Born in 1943 in Andover, Massachusetts, Al spent nearly 40 years owning and operating multiple local businesses, including successful ventures in software, property, and general contracting. Known for his creativity and problem-solving skills, he was the person family and friends turned to when anything needed fixing (whether a sink or a personal crisis)—and he was good at everything.

Al married his wife, Debra ("Debbie"), in 1980. They remained happily married for 45 wonderful years. He was a devoted father to five children: Kathy Fernandez, Jack Carter, Kim O'Keefe, Amanda Carter, and Adam Carter. He centered his life around his family, giving generously of his time, care, and support.

He loved traveling the world with his wife by RV and cruise, enjoyed books and games, and was known for his humor, kindness, and selflessness.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Alfred L. Carter and Jeanne Tisbert Carter, his sister Sylvia Sheppard, and his grandson John ("Bubba") Carter.

Al is survived by his wife Debbie Carter, his sister Joan Caston, his sister-in-law Teresa James, his grandchildren Jason, Samantha, Randy, Alicia, Haley, and Billy, many nieces and nephews, and extended family and friends. He will be remembered for his generous heart, quick wit, and love for those close to him.

Friends and family are invited to a visitation at Summersett Funeral Home in Salisbury, North Carolina, on Thursday, February 5, from 5 PM to 7 PM. Funeral service will be at 1PM Friday, February 6, 2026 at Summersett Memorial Chapel.
