

Alfred "Al" Cross Leonard Jr.

November 11, 1957 - December 20, 2021

Alfred "Al" Cross Leonard Jr was born November 11, 1957 in Salisbury NC and died unexpectedly December 20, 2021 in Park City, Utah.

Al graduated from Appalachian State University in 1981 and moved to the Salt Lake City Area in 1984, where he has worked in the hospitality industry over the last 37 years. Al had a great love for the outdoors which is what made the Salt Lake City area a good place to relocate and be with his friends who had become his Salt Lake City family.

Al was the son of the late Alfred "Buddy " Leonard and Allene Leonard.

Al is survived by his step-mother Marilyn Leonard of Charleston SC, sisters Elizabeth Lefler (Price) from Mt Ulla, NC, Lynda Sengebusch (Marc) from Columbia, MD, step-sister Charlotte Artus (Alan) from London England, and step-brother Mike Eaton from Mooresville NC.

“ Al was a soul friend, meeting him in 1986 in Park City, Utah. We shared a love of the mountains, music and looking for joy in life. We had a special connection and it is with sadness to know that his physical presence will not be one among the crowd of dancers. I will miss you Al, and I love you. Until we meet again, Maureen

“ Al was a soul friend, meeting him in Park City in 1986. We shared a love for the mountains, music and simply looking for joy in life. We ran along the same rivers but as we got older, we lost track but I had the pleasure of his company when music would bring us back together again. It is with sadness to know that going forward, his physical presence will not be one among the crowd. Al, I will miss you until, hopefully, we meet again. Love Maureen
