“ Dearest Alice, The Lord and Savior has called you home. I can just imagine the sights and sounds you must be experiencing. I will always treasure all of the times you came to visit. We always left the men at home, and that allowed to grow in our friendship. You were there for me when Donnie died and I will always remember your kindness. You have been an angel to me here in this world, so I know you are an angel now in Paradise.

“ To the family of Alice McLaughlin Cline:

I Remember the times my sister, Linda and I came to visit Alice. She was always polite and extra nice and I enjoyed the time I got to spend the her Linda and I always admired her sweet personality and loved her adorable smile. Later, when I came to work for John at his shop, Alice was always nice to me. I loved spending time with both Alice and John, especially when they were able to come to the Christmas parties.

I know they are both happy now, at home in the Grace of the Lord!

Thinking of you at this time and extending heartfelt understanding and sympathy to you and your family!

*In loving memory,
Jerry and Debbie Christie*
