“ Dear Keith and family,

I am so sorry for your loss. Your visits to my parents through the years were so appreciated. Daddy waved to your house every time he went up or down the road. You were such good neighbors for so many years. Williamson Street has lost two great seniors this year. I hope your many good memories will comfort you in the future.

“ Renee and family, keeping all of you in prayers. Is a difficult time, but she is in God's arms now and pain free. Just remember the good times and lots of memories. Love to all.
