“ I didnt know Alice but a few short years, but that was long enough for me to grow very fond of her, actually love her. We had long talks on many various subjects. I loved hearing about her life and her family. I really enjoyed her company. Loved her hugs and her smiles. I will miss her. So grateful to have known her❤️

“ When I started practicing as a young attorney in District Court Alice was always very patient when I mumbled or spoke too fast. Very professional but more importantly a good person.
