“ Sue was a dear friend of my parents - John and Helen Cashion and our family .When I was a child , Sue would make dresses for me and several of my friends at Neel Road Baptist Church . Then after I had children , she loved to buy them things and she would make sweaters for them . We always enjoyed our visits with Sue and she was so appreciative of gifts we would bring her . I enjoyed singing in the choir with Sue and treasure our friendship . When she moved to Accordius Health Care, we did not get to see her as often . We always enjoyed our visits there when we were able to see her and she always had a smile !! Sue touched many people's lives with her nursing career and in her every day life . She will be missed by many !!
