

Ally Shulenburger

January 12, 1998 - May 1, 2018

Allyson Halee Shulenburger, lovingly known as Ally, 20, of Mt. Ulla, passed away suddenly, Tuesday, May 1, 2018 at Novant Health – Presbyterian Hospital in Charlotte.

Born January 12, 1998 in Mecklenburg County, she was the daughter of Christopher Wayne Shulenburger and Tressa Curlee Shulenburger, who survive.

Ally was a graduate of West Rowan High School – Class of 2016 and was a full-time student at Rowan-Cabarrus Community College. She was in direct sales with Premier Jewelry.

Ally was the kind of person everyone should strive to be. She was hard working, loved her family endlessly and would do anything for anyone, not asking for anything in return. She will be remembered for the good things, and the memories that made everyone love her. Her laugh would warm your soul and her smile would bring joy to the saddest person. Words cannot convey all that she was. She will be greatly missed by all that knew her.

Some of her hobbies included crafting, crocheting, cooking, searching for treasures at flea markets, watching good movies, enjoying good coffee, but most of all being a daughter, granddaughter, sister, a loving Aunt, niece and friend.

Those left to cherish her memory are her parents, Chris and Tess (Paul Wiedenmann); two sisters, Lauryn Elizabeth Crandall (Steven) and Rebecka Brooke Shulenburger (Justin Wiles) ; one brother, Bobby Dale Shulenburger; paternal grandparents, Eddie and Vicki Shulenburger; maternal grandparents, Richard and Glenda Hunning; aunts and uncles, Johnny Shulenburger, Tonya and Daniel Harrington, James and Misty Shulenburger, Heath Curlee, Joey and Julie Noblitt, Robin and Patsy Agner, Rick and Donnett Curlee, Eddie and Lisa Jackson, Gary Benfield and Raymond Condrey; nieces, Ashton Caperton and Mkenzi Crandall along with baby Crandall and baby Wiles; her canine companion, Janie and numerous cousins, extended family and friends.

The family will receive friends Friday, May 4, 2018 from 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM at Summersett Funeral Home.

The funeral service will be held Saturday, May 5, 2018 at 11:00 AM in the Summersett Memorial Chapel with Rev. J.E. Earwood officiating. Burial will follow at St. Mark's Lutheran Church Cemetery.

Summersett Funeral Home is honored to be serving the Shulenburger family. Online condolences may be left for the family at www.summersettfuneralhome.com.

“ My son Ian knew Ally as a friend from Western Carolina and texted me last night, having learned of her death. As I look at her beautiful young smiling face so full of life, I can't get over thinking about what this must be like for your family. Please accept my most sincere wish that you are able to find strength and comfort in whatever sources it may come from and continue forth in the days ahead. My prayers are with you.

“ Allyson had a beautiful soul.. I remember a day in class she came in without her makeup so at lunch she was putting it on.. in the midst of her makeup process we began to talk about her eyebrows (always seemed to be the topic of conversation) she proceeded to raise her eyebrows and talk about she made sure they stayed on no matter how much spit someone tried to use to take them off... lol we always laughed so hard!!!! She loved her family and was always talking about them and her boyfriend... she was so full of life and lived every day to the fullest... she loved her jobs and made sure she tried to con all of us to go to Ulta to spend some money with her lol no matter what she had going on she always stayed smiling...

You will be missed baby girl but I know you are making everyone's day better up there and watching down on your family and friends.

RIH Ally!!!
