“ *Ann and I went off together for our very first day of school. Somewhere I have a great picture of two little girls holding books they could not yet read posing for this new venture. We were eager young friends. We played in her great backyard playhouse, climbed in the mulberry tree, checked on the Irish Terriers, and I enjoyed many visits made special by Helen and Herman, her wonderful parents.

“ Anne will always have a special place in my heart. She always extended me love and hospitality as long as I can remember. I met Anne and her husband Don in the mid 1970's through my friendship with her daughter Karen who I went to high school with. I often called Anne my “second mom” during my high school years as I hung out at the Fryar home often. Anne graciously hosted my bridal luncheon in 1987 when I later married. A true southern lady she was. Anne, I will miss you and will savor my memories of our times together.
