Dear Dan, What an honor it was to work with you at Charlotte Rehab and later at Demas Neurology. Those pain patients loved you so much. They would come to me to check out and rave on and on how great a doctor you were. They loved your praying with them. Yes, you were an absolute friend to those you treated. You have been a great friend to me. Your newsy Christmas letters were awesome. So richly composed and ,just a joy to read. I am certain that talented wife, Lenore, was responsible. She was a remarkable lady who enjoyed life to the fullest. What a team you made. God joined together two beautiful people who loved The Lord and shared His Word with others. Our prayers go out for you for peace and contentment. Lenore has now met her Lord face to face. I can hear The Lord saying to Lenore, "Welcome into the Kingdom of Heaven my precious sister". May God be ever near to you and your family as you go through the next few days and years to come. Prayers for all. Nancy Whitley-Garner
