

Mr. Anthony Joseph Amenta

October 4, 1956 - July 31, 2015

Anthony (Tony) Joseph Amenta, age 58, of Salisbury, passed away Friday, July 31, at his residence.

Tony Amenta was born October 4, 1956 in New Britain, CT. Son of the late Pauline Sytulek-Amenta and Paul Amenta. Tony was a proud veteran who served four years for the U.S. Army. He was a graduate of Tunxis University and received his Bachelor of Business Administration from Capella University.

Tony Amenta was a devoted husband, father, and grandfather. He dedicated his life to his family and would do anything to help the ones he loved. Tony had a wonderful heart and soul; a one-of-a-kind man that will truly be missed. May he rest in peace in the arms of the Lord until we meet again.

"For you will go out with joy and be led forth with peace; The mountains and the hills will break forth into shouts of joy before you, And all the trees of the field will clap their hands. Isaiah 55:12

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I worked with Tony at imperial Supplies. He did have a big heart and spoke of his family often and the love he had for each of you. I'm thankful that our paths crossed here on this earth and look forward to the day we meet again, until that day we must say goodbye to loved ones but one day all tears and pain will be over. Rev.21:4 Your family are in my prayers.

“ We thank God for the opportunity to have meet and spent time with Bro. Tony, Sis. Joanne and his entire family. He was an awesome man of God that had started to flourish in his gifting. He will truly be missed. We loved him then, now and forever. May God continue to comfort your family in this time of sorrow. Remember Psalms 30:5 For his anger endureth but a moment; in his favour is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning. Joy will come.

*With Gods Love,
Bishop & Pastor Brown and the Whosoever Will Church Family*

“ Tony, my big brother, where have you gone to now? We have been friends for over 40 years, and this is the third time I'm missing you. The first was when you went into the military, then you moved to the Carolinas, and now you're right above us but I can't talk to you. We raised incredible families and we just started talking about them but you've gone away again. I'm sure someday we'll meet again and we'll catch up then. God bless you, Joe

“ I would like to send my deepest condolences to the Amenta family. We were best friends as we grew up; we were like brothers. Then we went our separate ways and made the world a better place. Not too long ago, we reconnected, and we had so much to tell each other. It was a beautiful thing. Now sadly, we are apart again, and someday we will surely be reunited. Goodbye, my old friend, until we meet again. Love, Seb
