

Dr. Antoinette Benkowsky Shalkop

August 12, 1927 - December 14, 2017

Dr. Antoinette Benkowsky Shalkop, 90, of Salisbury, passed away Thursday, December 14, 2017 at The Laurels of Salisbury.

Born in 1927 in Paris, France, she was the daughter of the late Theodore and Catherine Sorakina Benkowsky.

She was also preceded in death by her beloved husband, Robert L. Shalkop. She is survived by her son Andrew Goforth, daughter-in-law Kathleen, and grandson Alexander.

Antoinette spoke five languages and retired as an academic in Slavic languages.

Honoring her request, she was laid to rest at the Salisbury National Cemetery alongside her husband Robert, with no formal services being held.

Online condolences may be left for the family at www.summersettfuneralhome.com.

Summersett Funeral Home is honored to have served the Shalkop family.

“ Andrew, I lived with Antoinette and Robert during my senior year at Colorado College in 1967. I can't locate you but I want you and yours to know how important both of them were to me. They shared some of their travels with me.

I read about Antoinette's death in the summer 2018 edition of Colorado College alumni magazine.
