“ To all of Bobbie's family, I am so sorry to hear of your loss. Your mom was one of the kindest and most special people I ever knew. When my dad passed in 1983, she sang at his funeral and would not allow us to pay her a dime. She will be missed here on earth, but I have no doubt that she has earned her angel wings, and is with her Lord in Heaven. Please know that all of you are in my thoughts and prayers. “ Kind, talented, funny, wise.....These are words that describe my Aunt Bobbie.

I remember Aunt Bobbie and Lynne being with my mom as she was at Autumn Care lying on her death bed. Aunt Bobbie sang old hymns to sing my mom into Heaven. Aunt Bobbie was the perfect Hospice nurse with her kind and comforting spirit.

She was so talented. She wrote beautiful poetry, often words glorifying her Savior. God gave her a beautiful soprano voice that she used to glorify Him. Judy was her accompanist, so perhaps they are giving a recital for God in Heaven.

I loved to hear her funny stories of her escapades with her two best friends, Hilda Feezor and Mildred Kluttz.

And wise! Like Judy, I would go to Aunt Bobbie with problems and she gave me wise counsel.

I will miss our many phone conversations, but I know you are happy and well with your Savior and your beloved Joe.

I think we will see you soon Aunt Bobbie, for our Savior is coming! (Luke 21:28). Until then, I love you!

To the family: “Blessed are they that mourn; for they shall be comforted.” Matthew 5:4

“ What can I say about this sweet lady that would do her justice, all I can say is that I loved her. Our conversations at her dining room table or in her den over coffee and a muffin will forever be a treasured memory for me. Rest in peace my sweet friend.
