“ I have many sweet memories of Barbara, my dear sweet cousin. I will cherish every one of them but one that I think about often and makes me smile are the times I baby sat for her and JC to go dancing! Man could they shag and had some awesome "records" which is what they were called back then. She later baby sat my children so I could work. My heart is heavy over her loss. Praying for peace and comfort for her family. I love you all.
