“ I was saddened to hear of this news. I haven't lived in Salisbury in over 18 years, however, I grew up with Cindy and Miss Barbara was the nicest lady anyone could ask to know. My heartfelt sympathy goes out to Mr. Hurley, the girls and the precious grandchildren who suffer such a loss. Please remember that even though in flesh we never understand how God can create such sadness, in Spirit, we are reminded that this body is a temporary vessel that leads us many places in life waiting for our wonderful time to go home to our Lord. May God Bless all of You in this time. All the way from Georgia, I love you all. :-)
