

Betty Stansbury Lomax

May 24, 1926 - October 2, 2022

Betty Stansbury Lomax, 96, of Salisbury, NC passed peacefully, surrounded by family and friends, Sunday, October 2, 2022, at the Kate B. Reynolds Hospice Home.

Born May 24, 1926, in Richmond, VA to the late William Aubrey and Louise Richardson Stansbury, Betty was predeceased by her husband of 59 years, Dr. Bobby A. Lomax and her brother, Warren Stansbury. She is survived by her sister, Mary Jane Stansbury Peake of Newport News, VA, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Betty graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School, Westhampton College of the University of Richmond, and from the University of Virginia. She taught physical education and dance at the elementary and middle school levels and at Catawba College. Betty played women's hockey and basketball in college and enjoyed tennis, swimming and volleyball. An active member of First Presbyterian Church, she loved her dogs, reading, flowers, playing and teaching bridge, learning languages, solving word puzzles, and creatively sewing and crafting clothes and gifts for others. Betty and Bob were dear, devoted surrogate parents and grandparents to many.

The family would like to express special gratitude to Betty's cherished friends, and to the loving, dedicated caregivers who made it possible for Bob and Betty to stay in their home.

A memorial service will be held at 11:00 Tuesday, Oct. 11, at First Presbyterian Church. The family will receive friends following the service in Lewis Hall.

Memorials may be made to the Betty Stansbury Lomax Endowed Scholarship, Catawba College, Office of Development, 2300 W. Innes St., Salisbury, NC 28144.

Summersett Funeral Home is serving the Lomax family. Online condolences may be made at www.summersettfuneralhome.com.
