

Mrs. Betty Hanvy Salisbury

March 20, 1950 - November 21, 2018

Betty Hanvy Dagenhart Salisbury, 68 of Cleveland passed away Wednesday, November 21, 2018 at her home.

Born March 20, 1950 in Mt. Pleasant, TN, she was the daughter of the late Margaret McKennon Hanvy and Frank England Hanvy.

She was educated in the Mt. Pleasant, TN schools.

Mrs. Salisbury was employed for Draymore Home Curtains, Mooresville.

She was a member of Cleveland United Methodist Church.

Those left to cherish her memory are her husband Lehn Salisbury; son, Jimmy Dagenhart and wife Karla of Harmony; step daughters, Katherine Salisbury of Graham, and Luree Holt and husband Henry of Virginia Beach, VA; brothers, Wayne Hanvy of Columbia, TN, twin brothers, Terry Hanvy and wife Susie of Mt. Pleasant and Kerry Hanvy and wife Beth of Ellenboro; grandson, Jacob Dagenhart of Statesville.

Graveside services will be conducted 3 PM Sunday, (Nov. 25) at Cleveland Town Cemetery, on Cemetery Street, with Rev. Sybil J. Perrell officiating.

The family will receive friends following the Graveside Service at Cleveland United Methodist Church.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Cleveland United Methodist Church, PO Box 456, Cleveland, NC 27013

Cemetery Details

Cleveland Town Cemetery

Cleveland, NC

Previous Events

Graveside Service

NOV 25. 3:00 PM (ET)

Cleveland Town Cemetery
Cleveland, NC

Visitation

NOV 25. 3:30 PM (ET)

Cleveland United Methodist Church
Cleveland, NC

Tribute Wall

“ Betty was a neighbor and friend. My son went over a lot to hang out with Lehn (her husband). Last year Betty told me that my son would knock on the door and say, "Can Lehn come out and play?" I remember we both laughed so hard. I guess my son never figured out Lehn was a grown up. I will miss Betty and the stories she told me that made me laugh.

Cyndi Allison - November 25, 2018 at 12:45 PM

“ Florist Choice Bouquet was purchased for the family of Mrs. Betty Hanvy Salisbury.

November 23, 2018 at 04:40 PM