“ Betty Wingate was one of the best cousins in my family. She would spend family events & get-togethers during our early years & holidays with myself & my sister Susan Belk along with my late parents, George & Joanie Belk. Betty would also be at the Trexler Bros. Men's store along with Carl & Bob gossiping on everyday life & family matters while my ma went shopping for suits & updated mens clothes. We'd sit & sip sodas from the vending machine too. Those were some of the best moments in our lives. I'd also come to her home & spend family moments as well. I'm gonna miss Betty a lot. Can't forget her & the kind manner she had during her time. May you R.I.P. dear Cousin Betty Wingate. I love you! From: Dave Belk. Charlotte NC. Hometown: Greensboro NC.
