

Beverly Kluttz Ingram

December 1, 2023

Beverly Kluttz Ingram of Faith, NC left us and is pain free on December 1, 2023 after a lifetime of mental illness.

Beverly is the daughter of Priscilla McGuire and George Kluttz. In her life she was dedicated to healing the pain of others. She owned and operated her own practice at Bev's Massage Therapy. She loved her family and was an avid football fan and fisherman. Beverly liked nothing better than hooking up on a big fish and reeling it in at the Outer Banks of North Carolina. She got that from her Grandpa Frank.

Beverly was a 1996 graduate of East Rowan High School and was a cheerleader. Beverly was also a 2010 graduate of Southeastern Institute-Charlotte in Massage Therapy/Therapeutic Massage. She was well known for her work in Charlotte before moving her practice to Salisbury.

Beverly was preceded in death by her grandparents, Gearnie Frank Schenk and Nellie Leazer Schenk.

Left to cherish her memories are her mom, Priscilla McGuire; father, George Kluttz; daughter, Morgan Ingram; husband, Thomas Ingram; sisters, Sherry (Dale) Peeler and Kelly Kluttz. Also, her nephews that she loved so much, Cam, Gabe, Jace, and Braden Peeler; dear cousins Jason and Wendy Kluttz. We could not leave out her best friend she had for years who was always by her side, her dachshund, Scooter.

The family is at the home of Beverly's sister Sherry Peeler in Faith.

“ Had the privilege of living next-door to Bev for several years. She was one of the sweetest, kindest, most gentle spirits, and such a beautiful person inside and out. Will miss you, Rest in peace. ❤️

“ Back in 2004, when I met Bev, I could not pronounce Chick-fil-a, being an immigrant from outside of the States, so instead I called it Flip a chick. She laughed so hard, and we spoke about that for a long time. She loved white clothes, and was always so clean and neat. May you Rest in Peace, Bev. Sending our condolences from here in Georgia, the Kotze family.
