“ I have enjoyed working with Billy over the past 2 years at Nazareth. He always had a wave or smile for me when he was going by on the mower or come into the gym to work on something. He would give me a hard time on the many occasions that I locked my keys in my office, but then he would just laugh. He was always there to help, not because it was his job, but because he cared. I will miss Billy very much, but I know that he is in good company.##imported-begin##Denise Linton##imported-end##
