“ May Irving and his other brothers, his parents, his children and his many friends rest knowing that Brandon, through good and some tough times too, united a community. I watched the soccer and his talent as a leader on the field but more importantly I watched a young man that was open to learning hard lessons and staying focused on a brighter future. He tested my will but also touched my heart where he will remain forever! I was lucky to have Brandon in my life. Coach Mitchell
