“ Our dear and precious Brittie, you were the most wonderful neighbor, and I treasure the chats that we shared over the years. I have fond memories of seeing you and Wendy plant flowers and walk down to the barn together. Over the years, I enjoyed seeing you walk your little dog in the neighborhood. You were a beautiful and kind Southern lady and you were loved dearly by your sweet family and friends. I couldn't have asked for a nicer neighbor and friend.

Truly, you were blessed to have a wonderful caregiver in Wendy. She loved you with every ounce of her heart and spent her days and nights attending to your every need. As I spoke with her today, I can tell that little heart is broken. I am praying for her and for all in your sweet family (Al, Tabitha, Dreama, Mac, Betty, and children) as they love and miss you so very much. Even in our sadness, we can rejoice as we are blessed in the assurance that we will see you again some day soon. I love you, Miss Brittie.
