To the Rogers Family: My dad, Bill Greenland, played golf with your dad for quite a few years. Your dad continued to take my dad to McCanless and played with him even after my dad got dementia, and he served as a pall bearer at my dad's funeral. My dad bragged all the time about his golfing buddy who was 92 years old, and he had the greatest respect for your dad. My aunt got to know him at Carillon (across the hall) and it sounds like he was as much a favorite there as he was everywhere else. I'm very sorry for your loss, and I feel privileged to have known him, if only through my dad. May all your happy memories bring you comfort.
