

Infant Cali Renee Sites

August 27, 2016 - September 9, 2016

Cali Renee Sites born too early, taken too soon. Determined, a fighter, strong, loved, precious, Mommy's princess and Daddy's little girl, these are just a few words that were used to describe her during her 14 days here on this earth. We are far from understanding why, but grateful for the moments that we had with her.

Cali is survived by her parents Brandon and Ashley Sites; siblings Deven Fox and Emma Sites; grandparents Bill and Diann Sites of Lucas, OH, David and Debbie Osborne of Rockwell and Calvin and Marlene Humphries of Concord; great grandparents Robert McClain of Concord and Elizabeth Vernell Foshee of Warner Robins, GA; aunts and uncles Sarah Wise, Teresa Gaines, Andy Sites, Amy Secrist and Dawn Hager.

She was greeted in heaven by Granny McClain, Grandpa Foshee, Mamaw Weez, Great Grandpa Jack and Grandma Dorothy Palmer, Uncle Tim and Uncle Donald.

Service: 4:00 PM Saturday, September 17, 2016 at Life Church in Salisbury. Summersett Funeral Home is serving the Sites family. Online condolences may be made at www.summersettfuneralhome.com.

“ I am deeply sorry for the loss of your precious baby girl. The only words that can come close or comforting you right now would have to come from God. He is the only one who could even begin to understand how you feel. He promised at Isaiah 41:13 that "he is grasping our right hand, the one saying to you, 'Do not be afraid. I myself will help you.' ”

Understanding why may not give you the comfort you need right now, but in my research of that very same question, I found this answer. It is a brief answer to a much larger issue, but this is what I found.

God did not mean for horrible things like this to happen to us. Suffering was not part of his purpose for mankind. However, the first human couple rebelled against God's rulership, choosing to set their own standards of good and bad. They turned away from God and suffered the consequences.

Today we are experiencing the effects of their bad choice. But in no way did God originate human suffering. Please read James 1:13.

There is more to this answer of way God would allow something so tragic to happen. Please know that he did not take your precious girl, but she is in his memory and just as soon as he can he will resurrect her. The bible says that when we suffer it is distressing to God. (Isaiah 63:9) He hated to see this happen to you. And he will not be happy until she is back in your arms again.

If you would like to know more, I would be happy to show you, from the bible more about this. Renay
