“ As long as our family has known Carol, music was such a special part of her life. She shared her talents with the choir at Dunns' Mountain Baptist Church, as Choir Director. Her love of music and life, was evident to all she met. We continued the fellowship with her as members of First Baptist Church, always able to locate her in the choir with the beaming smile that was her trademark. Know that our family will remember you all in our prayers, especially during the weeks to come. May The Lord grant you peace!

“ Her beautiful smile would brighten any room. She will truly be missed at First Baptist Church. Such a sweet and thoughtful lady that loved our Lord and Savior. She had the face and voice of an Angel. We rejoice for her homecoming into heaven but we will all miss her presence here on earth. May we all follow the footsteps and the example that Carol did. By letting others see Jesus in us no matter where we are or what we are doing or the journey we may be traveling. Rest in peace my friend and know that One of God's Finest has enter into to His Kingdom.
