“ Hello Cheryl, Tammy, and Wendy. This is Steve Robinson, and with my older brothers Carl Jr (Robbie) and John, we used to visit your family home on Newton St (across from the high school) in the late 60s-70s during visits to our grandparents who lived at the corner of Whitehead and Fourth St (Herman and Minerva Robinson, our grandparents). We'd play kids games (tag etc) in your nice back yard there. Our Dad, Carl Robinson Sr, has fond memories of your wonderful Mom, whom I remember from those days also as a great lady. Our Dad recently turned 91, lives in Austin, TX after a 30 yr Air Force career, which kept us mostly far from Spencer. We lost our Mom, Jeanine, back in 2021. Dad attended high school with your folks, graduating Spencer in 1953. Oldest brother Rob also served an Air Force career, lives in Montana. Brother John worked for Dell and other IT, lives in Austin. I served an AF career, live in northern Virginia. Dad keeps up to date with the Spencer Railroaders grads through Ron Lanning, and also Nancy Spake. Sorry again to hear of the loss of your great Mom, we know she was a blessing.
