“ In 1959 I was welcomed at Carole's and Dorothy Ketchie King's apartment on R Street in Washington, DC. Both of these cute and fun girls who worked for the Federal Government took me under their wings and oriented me to our Nation's Capital where I also would be coming to work. Carole was one of the most fun girls full of energy and wit. I will be forever grateful to her and Dorothy for paving the way for me. My deepest sympathies are extended to her husband and family.
