“ Bill, I've shared the sad news of Carolyn's passing with our Ole Murphy Farms Team. Everyone is so shocked and sad. We have many fond memories of Carolyn, and you, Rebekah, and Will. Carolyn was always so kind and considerate of others. She was a joy to work with and had a unique love for many things. We had spoken several times over the years as she changed jobs or moved, but we had not spoken for about 2 years.

Danny and I both will keep you all in our prayers. God Bless you mightily and give you guidance and peace.##imported-begin##Evelyn Wood##imported-end##

“ Bill and family,

I was so shocked and dismayed at the news of Carolyn's passing. I am so very sorry. My family and I extend our heartfelt sympathy.

Carolyn was a sweet and kind person and a dear friend and co-worker. We graduated from James Sprunt Community College at the same time, both receiving the High Honor Student Award. She was a day student and I, an evening student, so the graduation ceremony was the first time we met. I worked with her at Murphy Family Farms in Rose Hill, NC, and have fond memories of her and your children. We had many conversations about raising our children and about our children's activities and challenges. I sent her a letter a couple of years ago at the last known address I had for her in the hopes of reconnecting. I am filled with sadness for the tremendous loss to so many and will treasure her friendship and memory.

Please extend our sympathy to your entire family. You will all be in our thoughts and prayers.

*In Friendship,
Karen Kennedy##imported-begin##Karen Kennedy##imported-end##*

“ It's been my pleasure and privilege to have met the Wilson and Blalock families through my friendship with Tom and Melissa. While I didn't get many opportunities to see Carolyn, she was good company, and easy to like. The loss of her is a tragedy in so many ways, and I know it's a pathetic understatement to say she'll be missed. “ May you find comfort in the memories that are yours to cherish always, and strength in the companionship of those who share your loss.... I have learned never to underestimate the healing power we all have. It is always there to be used for the highest good. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. (Matthew 5:4) May it be a source of inner strength to know that there's a loving God watching over you, and that, throughout this time of need, He'll stay close by your side.

I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith.-2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5##imported-begin##Magallon Family##imported-end##

“ Our prayers, hearts and thoughts go out to the entire Wilson, Blalock, Walters family at this time of great sadness. We knew Carolyn through her sister, Melissa, and our brother Tom. They thought the world of her and her family. We heard about Carolyn, Bill, Rebekkah and Will often and know that Carolyn--and family--- are much loved, much adored, by Melissa and Tom. It is hard for all of us to get past the shock of her passing. I am praying that God gives all of you--and us---the ability to understand and endure these sad days. Much love to all of you.
