“ I met Cathy the day I went to work with the Social Security Administration and worked with her for the next 20 years. She loved her family dearly and was a dedicated worker. Many will miss her.

“ I met Cathy when I was roommates with her son, Robby, in Wilmington. We always looked forward to visits from “Mama Cathy.” She would cook for us, tell us funny stories about Robby (of whom, she was so incredibly proud), and occasionally poke fun at us here and there about household chores we were slacking on! She was warm, and kind, and so proud of her family, especially Robby. Wishing Cathy a peaceful rest and her family wellness and healing. Love, Sarah and Jim Zachry

“ Cathy, I sure have missed you. This COVID-19, stuff has messed up things so much. You were always so kind and loving. I will treasure the trips and the memories you have been apart of. I pray for your son who you always spoke so kindly and lovingly. I pray for your family. You will always be a beautiful part of our YMCA family. ❤️ With love. Louise

“ Cathy, my cousin. My dad called her "dutch" because of her blond hair, blue eyes and pink cheeks. I remember our family get-togethers, especially 4th of July picnics and baseball games at our home in Morrisville. I keep you in my heart and prayers.

“ I had the honor of working with Cathy at Social Security Administration for several years.

One day, I asked Cathy if she ironed her clothes for work before she went to bed. She told me that she irons all of her clothes on Saturday or Sunday evenings for the upcoming work week! I can't remember exactly which day she ironed all of her clothes for the week, I do know that it was either Saturday or Sunday.

I told her that I was going to try ironing my clothes in advance for the upcoming work week. She encouraged me to try it!

Thanks to Cathy, I have ironed my clothes on Sunday evenings for the up coming work week since 2006! That may not work for some people but it worked for Cathy when she was an SSA employee and it also works for me!

I will never forget Cathy for encouraging me to iron my clothes on the weekend for the upcoming work week!

Love,
Kyesha Kasing

“ Cathy was a wonderful person and friend. I miss all the wonderful times we had at the YMCA pool and our trips together. Don't know how I will start my day without your Good Morning post on Facebook. I miss your smile and your great sense of humor. It will be so hard for all of us that you have left behind but Heaven just got a fabulous angel. I will miss you my friend but you are in my heart.
