“ I knew CeCe when I was a little girl. Her house was beside my grandmother's house on West Innes Street in Salisbury. When I came to visit my grandma sometimes I would go visit Polly and CeCe. They were wonderful, kind and sweet to me. CeCe was 10 years older than me and she would take me to play on the swings in her back yard. I have even dreamed of those wonderful memories before and can picture the house as well. I remember exactly how they looked and their smiling faces like in the picture. Her family was very blessed to have had her in their lives! I even remember they were vegetarians!
