“ We knew Clyde quite some time ago in Kannapolis, however, we needed some repairs done on our well, and he responded with a smile. From that point on we knew we had a new, but familiar face to help us whenever we needed him. Clyde became our friend. We shall miss him immensely.

Please accept our heartfelt sympathies in your time of bereavement.

We too shall miss his friendship and most of all his smile.##imported-begin##Darryl & Kyleen Harrington##imported-end##

“ We were shock to learn of Clyde Wright's passing. He was a very good man. His smiles and compassion for others truly blessed us. Mr. Wright entered into our lives in 1992 as our well man. He immediately became our friend forever. We will miss him; but we know that God was ready for him to come home. God Bless You!###imported-begin##Deborah Shaw###imported-end##
