

Clyde E. Kizziah Jr.

July 4, 1931 - February 14, 2018

Clyde “K” E. Kizziah Jr. passed away on Wednesday, February 14, 2018 at Glenn A. Kiser Hospice House in Salisbury.

“K” was born July 4, 1931 and was a Salisbury native. He was the son of the late Clyde E. Kizziah Sr. and Dorothy Yancey Kizziah.

He attended Boyden High School and graduated from The Citadel in 1953, and then served in the United States Army during the Korean War. He was employed for many years by Holmes Investment Company; working side by side with his life long friend, Jimmy Hurley.

“K” enjoyed music, photography, history, cooking, travel and he had a natural ability of navigation. (He truly needed no directions.)

He is survived by those who loved him. His wife, Sarah Kizziah, daughter Deborah Kizziah Gant, daughter Barbara Lynn Singer, son David O. Singer, daughter Beth Singer Mack and her husband, Stephen P. Mack.

He is also survived by his great-grandchildren, Naomi Chandler Smith, and Asher James Smith.

The memorial service will be held at First Presbyterian Church, 308 W. Fisher St. Salisbury, NC on Monday, February 19th, 2018 at 2:00pm. A celebration of life reception will be held at the church immediately after the service.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the Glenn A. Kiser Hospice House, 1229 Statesville Blvd., Salisbury NC 28144 or your favorite charity.

The family appreciates the loving care and friendship of the Novant Health Presbyterian Hospital Staff and Dr. Myron Goodman, and the entire staff of the Glenn Kiser Hospice House.

Summerset Funeral Home is honored to be serving the Kizziah family. Online condolences may be made at www.summersetfuneralhome.com.

“ May the Kizziah family be comforted and strengthened as you face this challenging moment. It is a difficult time for you because the loss of an endearing loved one is painful. As you cherish Mr. Clyde's memory warmly in your hearts, reflect too on the wonderful promise at Revelation 21: 3,4 when the pain you feel now will be gone forever.
