“ I knew Danny in Elementary school and on through high school. He was always a friend and we had many good times in elementary school at Frank B John. Never saw a mean action by him, always helpful and a good friend.

Sorry for his loss.

“ *Allison, I was so sorry to hear about your dad. It is not easy to let go. My dad passed away 6 years ago after a long illness and it was hard to see him like that. I know where he is now and he is so much better off than we are. We will see them again and it will be wonderful. I will be praying for you guys.
