“ Susan,

I knew you when you were a little girl and you visited my grandmother Flossie Robison who lived near you and your parents. I am the grandson that mowed the yard and enjoyed seeing you and meeting your parents. We visited your mother several times and always enjoyed our visits. I have nice memories of you and your mother. God bless you and your family.

“ I only met Mrs. Reavis one time at Kimberly's graduation . She made me feel like I had known her all my life. She was an exceptionally nice lady. I know all her family and friends will be lost without her. My prayers go out to them in their time of grief.
