“ Dee and Scott, so sorry you lost your mom to this world but I am sure she will never leave you and will be watching over you with your dad from above. Dad and I saw her recently at one of the fish fries and sat with her while eating. We later talked about how young and happy she was and we were happy for her. She always had a smile and a kind word when we saw her at any Masonic function. She will be missed and we are grateful for her sharing her life with us. May God bless and comfort all.

Dear friend and family . I am deeply saddened by the sudden and unexpected time you left us. Your friendship has meant the world to Patti and I as we have spent holidays, birthdays, get togethers for no other reason than enjoying one's companionship. Your home and your heart were opened to us when we invaded North Carolina. We have worshiped together and enjoyed the many blessings our savior has given us. While I know you are in the hands of Jesus and all the loved ones who have gone before you for those left behind we selfishly ache and miss you. Your life was well spent and a role model to follow into heaven . GOD speed good and faithful servant We love and miss you .
