“ I worked with David at USI. We all loved that place and we had so many good times. I will never forget David. He was so quiet, but sometimes we brought him out of his shell, and he would laugh so hard his shoulders would shake. He had the best smile. My sympathies to his family. You are all in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I was privileged to serve Rockwell United Methodist Church during the time that David was in our midst. He was faithful in all ways, putting in many hours as he shared his gifts and skills with us. His smile was quick on the draw, and he always had a good word to speak about others. His quiet manner produced calm. He will be missed.
