

David Altamont Moxley

August 26, 1957 - January 3, 2019

David Altamont Moxley

My dearest brother, David, died Thursday, January 3, 2019, in Salisbury, North Carolina, after a brief illness.

The son of Elmer A. Moxley and Mildred W. Moxley, David was born on August 26, 1957, in Chattanooga, Tennessee. David graduated from Reynolds High School in Asheville, North Carolina, in 1977. He was employed at Rowan Vocational Opportunities in Salisbury for many years.

He is survived by Melody Moxley (sister) of Salisbury as well as Donald E. Womack (uncle), Joyce K. Womack (aunt), Martha W. Neff (aunt) all of Chattanooga, Tennessee, as well as several cousins.

David was a loving brother, a steadfast friend, and a caring person. Despite the many challenges he faced, he lived valiantly and boldly.

David had a sly smile and an interest in many things, especially reading, travel, NASCAR, wildlife of all varieties, movies, and television. He was an authority on anything Star Trek and an eminent collector of Mr. Spock memorabilia.

David had a very special friend in Toby, a happy little beagle who was a beloved part of David's life for ten years, and before Toby there were several other loyal and special friends of the four-legged variety.

I am honored and blessed to have had David as my brother and will miss him terribly but also know that David was cared for by a loving God and is now asleep in Jesus.

A memorial service will be held in the Chapel of St. John's Lutheran Church, Salisbury, at 1 PM on Friday, January 11, 2019. Visitation will be held prior to the service in Peeler Hall from noon until 1PM. Interment will follow at the Salisbury VA National Cemetery.

Memorials may be directed to the Elmer and Mildred Moxley Endowment of the Rowan Public Library Foundation, 201 West Fisher Street, Salisbury, North Carolina, 28144.

Summersett Funeral Home is serving the Moxley family. Online condolences may be made at www.summersettfuneralhome.com.
