“ Always liked David. Mom & Dad, Tyler and I spent time with him and Mildred at the condo at the beach and at the log cabin at the lake. We rode on the pontoon boat and went out to dinner a few times. Also visited them in Mathews when they lived there. They came to the Haney reunions at Centerview for many years. I even remember going to Aycock Well Drilling when uncle Ellis and Aunt Georgia owned it. So many memories of the Aycock and Stewart families. We even went to visit Boyd and Margaret at the mountains one year. So long ago - sure do miss seeing these people that have left this world. It is a comfort to know they are in paradise and someday we will see them again. My thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time. I know your faith and trust in the Lord will give you comfort in the days and weeks to come. Love you guys! Janet Haney Hinson Rape
