“Granny Dee was a much loved person and we shared so many fun memories with her. Our son, Preston, and her grandson, Brent, are best friends, became police officers, and even joined the military together. Granny always shared her pepperoni rolls, her funny wit, and love for her family. We loved Granny’s daughter, Kim, and we know they are reunited again together. Granny was such a special person I just had to share our love, remembrance, and memories of our time with her. She will be greatly missed.
