“ Just heard (Dec14). Unbelievable.

Oddly, I thought of her from time to time-- more than you--I suppose that's because Lora would see her in court and I would hear something every few years...

Shows how far out of touch one can get, doesn't it?

Hope you are well, and can begin to move forward soon. I'll remember Dottie most fondly.

“ My heartfelt sympathy to the Gamblin family. Dotti was such a great lady. I am so glad I had the opportunity to visit with her these last few months at the hospital. She has been such a God sent to my family in years past. We not only lost an excellent attorney but a dear compassionate friend who has been taken away too soon. “ To the family of Dottie I wish to send my sincere deepest sympathy. This woman was such a fantastic lady. Not only was she my attorney since the early 90s she became a friend and if it had not been for her I would not have had the opportunity to raise the wonderful son that she helped me fight so hard for. I have always felt an indebtedness to her for her kind, compassionate care when she took me under her wing years ago. She was exemplary in her work and very giving to her clients. My family grew to love her and respect her and I feel as though I have lost a dear friend. If ever there was an angel in waiting she was it. Please know that we will keep you all in our thoughts and prayers and will never forget this special lady who has left a void in our lives with her passing.

Sincerely,
