“ Upon the death of Dorothy's son Barry Gupton, I saw her obituary. Dorothy was a most talented person who taught me so much about horticulture, homeopathic medicine and home remedies, and the joy of creative homemaking. She was an important Partner to her late husband Ed Gupton helping in their family business Sawmill and Machinery Company, now an antiques shop. She loved square dancing and trips to their mountain house in Busick, N. C. Where they shared all they had been blessed to own with many friends and family.
