“ Dot was the sister to my recently deceased Mother-In -Law Barbar Bryant Hicks of Lynchburg ,VA.

I first met Dot & Baron in 1979 and initially when my then to be future Mother-In -Law didn't quite approve, "Dot" was my advocate and told Barbaba, "Barbara, I think that young man is a fine young man, he loves your daughter Terrie and she loves him. You need to see that and be nice to him."

I'll never forget that, or the kindness her and Baron showed to me as well as the rest of their family.

I loved her for that and later when ever we would go to FL to see my family we would try to get by and visit with her ,and later her and Tom when we came back through.

Tom was a blessing.

My thoughts are with Merle and the entire family these days.
