“ Mamaw Dot was an awesome lady with a tremendous Love for God and her Family and Church Family. She loved to give hugs anytime you saw her and you knew she was sincere. She loved me and my family and we loved her. We could always share anything with her and somehow she would know just what to say and how to comfort us when things weren't exactly right. We enjoyed sitting with her at Church functions and occasionally at K & W when we got to spend one on one time with her at supper. She would always leave you with a brighter outlook and smile on your face because she would say she loved you and you knew it was real. I'm going to miss those hugs and the advice, but as I spoke to her on the phone a couple days ago and we were ending our conversation, she told me she loved me and that makes me smile. We will see you again one day on that heavenly shore. We love you too!!! Brian, Kim & Madisen Williams
