

Dr. Lloyd "Pete" Robertson

February 1, 1934 - November 11, 2010

Dr. Lloyd Harvey (Pete) Robertson Jr. , 76, of Salisbury, died November 11th at the Virginia Casey Center of the Lutheran Home at Trinity Oaks after a long battle with Alzheimer's disease.

Pete was born in Salisbury to Dr. Lloyd Harvey Robertson and Mozelle Poole Robertson on February 1, 1934. He was a graduate of Woodberry Forest School, Davidson College and Duke University School of Medicine. He completed his residency in Urology at Duke in 1965 and returned home to join the medical practice of the Salisbury Urological Clinic. Pete served as President of the Medical Staff of Rowan Regional Medical Center in 1987. He retired in 1991.

An avid hunter and sportsman throughout his life, he won numerous awards for his skill at competitive sporting clay and shooting events on a national level. As a private pilot for many years, he also participated in air shows flying aerobatic airplanes. He enjoyed the game of golf and served on the board of the Country Club of Salisbury. He served as a Major in the Army Reserves. He is survived by his wife of 28 years, Katharyn Smith Robertson, son Mark Harvey Robertson and wife Virginia, daughter Heath Robertson van Wagenberg all of Salisbury and four grandchildren, Katherine DeBeer van Wagenberg of Charlotte, NC, Mark Parker van Wagenberg of Greenville, NC, Virginia Moye Robertson and Ann Hunter Robertson of Salisbury.

Service: Graveside service will be held at 3:00 PM Saturday (Nov. 13) at Rowan Memorial Park officiated by Rev. Rhodes Woolly, Pastor of St. John's

Lutheran Church.

Visitation: The family will receive friends immediately following the service at the home of Mark and Virginia Robertson, 1 North Road.

Memorials: In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Abundant Living Adult Day Care Center, 1416 Martin Luther King, Jr. Ave, Salisbury, NC 28144 or the charity of your choice.
