

Edward Grey Joyner Jr.

March 2, 1924 - February 8, 2024

Edward Grey Joyner, Jr., 99, of Salisbury, passed away February 8, 2024, at Compass Healthcare.

Edward was born in Greenville, NC on March 2, 1924, to Edward Grey Joyner, Sr. and Susan Gay Joyner. He grew up in Wilson, N.C. He was an Eagle Scout.

He enlisted in the Army Air Corp serving during WWII and was assigned to the 8th Army 95 Bomber Squadron Group. He was a radio gunner on a B17 which flew over Germany and after the war flew food and other supplies over Holland.

After the war he returned to UNC at Chapel Hill where he was an ATO and editor of the Daily Tarheel. While at UNC he was inducted into the Order of the Grail, an honorary service fraternity and Golden Fleece, an honor Society.

After obtaining a degree in Journalism he worked for United Press in Raleigh, Richmond and New York City. Afterwards he went into Public Relations and was PR director for the Chesapeake Bay Bridge Tunnel; moved to Charleston and was PR director for five southern states until his retirement. After retiring he moved to Wilson to care for his mother and father. In 1985 he married Blair Alston Joyner who preceded him in death in 2023.

He and Blair lived in Salisbury, NC where he was a member of St. Luke's Episcopal Church and served as an usher and led Evening Prayer. He was a volunteer with Rowan Helping Ministries and a Master Gardener.

He leaves to cherish his memory, daughters: Rev. Sally Joyner Giffin (John) of Thurmont, MD and Holly Joyner Mathews (Jim) of Avon, CT; also David Winston Joyner of Salisbury, Edward William Joyner of Morehead City, Blair Elizabeth (Bliss) Rendle (James) of Bismark, ND, eleven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Inurnment will be at St. Luke's Episcopal Church Columbarium at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to St. Luke's Episcopal Church, 131 W. Council St., Salisbury, NC 28144.

Summersett Funeral Home is serving the Joyner family. Online condolences may be made at www.summersettfuneralhome.com.

Tribute Wall

CG

“ Knew Ed for many years through activities at St. Luke's. He was always pleasant and had a good sense of humor. My late husband always considered him a good friend and Ed was a usher at his funeral. He will be missed by many. Sympathy to his family. Candy Graper

Candy Graper - February 20, 2024 at 01:43 PM

JH

“ Such a dear, good man & neighbor. God rest his precious soul.

Joy Hartle - February 15, 2024 at 12:01 PM

BR

Thank you Joy! He thought the world of you also-

Bliss Rendle - February 15, 2024 at 02:23 PM

HM

Even though Dad was just shy of 100, I bet he would have said he was still 39! He was forever young and just got sweeter with age.

Holly Joyner Mathews - February 16, 2024 at 04:08 PM