“ Oh how my heart hurts to find this out. I just looked your name up in google and this showed up. :(This is very sad, I never got to meet you in person but I always loved you, we could never be more than friends but I loved you regardless. I can only ask what happened? But there will be no answer. I still can't believe it. You passed away a year ago, and just two years ago I had a dream about you and your brother. Little did I know it was probably telling me that you would join him soon. :(I hope you went in peace and I hope you are resting in peace for I know you didn't have it easy in life. I only talked to you for a couple of year after we met 1998 online and you won my heart over, I thought that our white fantasy would come true, only you and I know what that means. But life took us in different directions, even so, that I tried to hang on to you but reality showed me that it could not be. God only knows how I feel right now... :(

My heart and prayers go out to the Bostian family. <3 God bless you with strength.

*Love Always,
M*
