“ Wally, so sorry to read, just now, of your Mom's passing. Any time I would see her out in Salisbury we would always talk. She was always a very sweet person. I had no idea that we shared the same birthday! Prayers of comfort and peace for your family.

Sincerely, Bettina Lail

“ I know Bette was the rock for her family. She also was a second mother for me and other young reporters at the Salisbury Post many, many years ago, We took turns working beside Bette in the mornings, helping her with the obituaries , though she took the lead. She brought a positive attitude to work everyday, which I always appreciated, and she was a sounding board and cherished friend to her colleagues. A wonderful person who I will always remember. She loved her boys and my heart goes out to them. What a great lady! Mark Wineka
