“ I haven't seen Erik since I've moved from Salisbury, but I have a lot of memories with him. My favorite has to be the trip I shared with Jason and his family to Cherry Grove. That was a blast, as was all the time we spent together over at his duplex in Rockwell. He was always fun to be around and lit up the room back then. I'm praying for God to hold the Jones family in his hands in this horrible time of loss.

“ Eric was the young man you were always happy to see. We lived right beside his family home, when Eric was doing yard work he always gave us his big old wave and a smile that would warm any heart. Yes we truly miss him, now and always.
